NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Seventy-five business men organized as a committee today to persuade labor leaders to refrain from declaring a general strike in sympathy with the street railway employees, of whom it is asserted there are 11,000 on strike.

This is the last day of grace given by the labor unions to the mayor and volunteer mediators to settle the dispute with the Interborough Rapid Transit Company and the New York City Police.

Blotting continues despite the fact that 2,000 policemen were concentrated in the center of the city last night to protect elevated and cross-town surface lines, electric sympathizers bombarded cars with missiles. In one case several hundred strikers attacked a car in Central Park West and were beaten off only after a battle with the police.

Repeatedly during the early hours today Sixth and Third avenue elevated trains were assailed by strike sympathizers on rooftops. Twenty-two such attacks were reported by the police within a few hours. Car windows were smashed under showers of bricks and bottles, and several passengers were injured.

PARDON REFUSEDOnly Governor Can Save H. E. Filler From Gallows.

Special to The Courier.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 21.—Despite eloquent pleas from his attorneys that a rehearing of the case of H. E. Filler, the Westmoreland county murderer, would develop evidence to establish a reasonable doubt of his innocence and lead to a commutation of his death sentence, the Board of Pardons last evening refused to grant the rehearing, and Filler will go to the chair next week unless further respite by Governor Brumbaugh.

The board told counsel at the start that it did not want a repetition of any old argument, but only evidence bearing on the man's innocence that has been found since last June, when commutation was refused.

EL PASO, Sept. 21.—The third battalion of the Tenth Infantry, consisting of Companies I, K, L and M, arrived at Camp Stewart yesterday from the Big Bend country, where they were on duty at Green Springs and Boquilla. Although ragged, the men are in good health. Because of rough country as far as Marathon, their return was delayed nearly three weeks.

The first and second battalions of the Tenth went to Fort Bliss to meet the Third, and with the band playing the entire regiment returned to camp.

It was a day of joy and sorrow in the Second Brigade, the death of Major Christopher M. Anderson of Pittsburg causing much sorrow.

A reception was to have been given by the Tenth in honor of the return of Companies I, K, L and M, but owing to the death of Major Anderson it was postponed.

By O. R. Harwick, Staff Correspondent.

EL PASO, Sept. 21.—Tomorrow promises to be the long looked for red letter day for the Fighting Tenth. The return of the Third Battalion is finally to happen. A telegram was received today by Colonel Richard Coulter that they would be in for sure tomorrow afternoon or evening. Earlier in the week it was expected they would be in today but from a delay of some sort they could not make connections.

Tomorrow is also pay day for the month of August and, with this to help the celebration tomorrow night promises to be a glorious one. The entire Tenth Regiment headed by the band will turn out to meet them and join in the reception of the boys who have seen actual border service. The regimental minstrel show conducted by Major Geo. Thompson will be for their benefit and gives promise of the best yet. Major Thompson says he will have the best soldier talent in El Paso on this occasion for he says there is nothing too good for the boys and that is the sentiment of everybody here. They have been absent since June 12. In the battalion are eight Connellville boys with the hospital detachment and the balance of the hospital corps boys say that their boys will never forget their reception.

The Fighting Tenth returned yesterday afternoon from a two-day hike and maneuver which covered about 50 miles both ways. The regiment left early Friday morning with all equipment and wagon train of supplies. After covering about 10 or 12 miles they engaged in combat with the entire First Brigade and lost none of their prestige in the engagement which lasted about four hours. They cooked their own dinner individually previous to the engagement. After the battle in which the Tenth was complimented highly in all departments, they moved on another 30 miles and went into camp for the night at the foot of Mount Franklin.

The horses were picked and the combat wagon train drawn up and everything was in readiness for a good supper which was cooked by the company cooks. This is the first time the cooks ever accompanied the companies on these hikes and the supper was relished by all. The dog tents were pitched and preparations were made for the night. It soon developed that the outfit was camped in a den of rattlesnakes. A detachment of the hospital corps was hurriedly sent out to take care of any snake bites that might occur, but fortunately their services were not needed, although in all about 50 snakes were killed that night. Everybody was pretty nervous at first when the boys learned they were in the rattlers' territory and many amusing incidents occurred. Major Martin gave the men a talk about snakes and the care that should be used, and told the men that they could not bite through leather or the heavy leggings and told them to be careful in sleeping or sitting on the ground. After hearing the lecture one of the officers is reported to have gone to bed with his shoes, leggings and gloves on and it is said his hat was pulled down over his ears also. About seven snakes were killed the following day and some of them were large ones, too, but nobody was bitten at any time during the maneuvers.

The return was taken up early the next morning and another engagement took place in which the Tenth was the support for the Eighteenth and Sixteenth regiments and did not get into the battle to a very great extent, but was again with the victorious side. This maneuver occurred in a plain of large cactus and was an ideal place for a maneuver as the opposing armies could get

26,000 SOLDIERS

Clement and Bell.

By Associated Press.

EL PASO, Sept. 21.—National guardsmen and regulars—26,000 of them in dust stained khaki—swung through the streets of El Paso and passed a reviewing stand at Fort Bliss today in the first parade and review of an infantry division at full war strength ever held in the United States. Military men said also that a larger number of troops were in line than at any other time in the history of the country with the exception of the grand review in Washington at the close of the Civil War, May 23 and 24, 1865.

Taunted by service on the border, the brown-clad legions, cavalry, infantry, field artillery, and auxiliary troops marched in an unbroken column nearly 20 miles long. Major General Charles M. Clement, commanding the Pennsylvania division and Brigadier General George Bell, Jr., commanding the El Paso military district, reviewed them.

Participating in the review were troops from the regular army, from Massachusetts, Michigan, Ohio, South Carolina, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island and New Mexico, in all 799 officers and 26,913 men. Eight thousand animals and 1,300 vehicles including ambulances, army wagons, and supply wagons helped make up the pageant.

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 21.—The request of 300 members of the Second New York Infantry to remain on border duty after they had been ordered home resulted today in an announcement by General Funston that guardsmen who wished to stay could transfer to other regiments, releasing men who wanted to return. Three Pennsylvania regiments will soon be released by the arrival at the border of a similar number of North Carolina regiments.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Sept. 21.—Charles E. Hughes, addressing his second audience of the day in the open air here today, outlined the policies for which he stands and declared that he wanted to see in the United States "a great driving force of patriotic sentiment which would furnish the motive power for progress."

"I want American rights protected throughout the world," Mr. Hughes said. "I desire to see a great driving force of patriotic sentiment which will give us the motive power of progress. We cannot have progress unless we have that loyalty and love for our country which will enable us to get up steam to supply energy."

Mr. Hughes went into detail concerning his tariff views.

"The protective tariff," he said, "would have to be applied to enable America to meet European competition after the war. 'If it is not,' he said, 'we will not only have a repetition of the period of unemployment that we had just before the European war but we will have agitation and confusion and disaster in this country. I see unbounded trouble ahead in displacement of labor if it is not done. I see only disaster and disaster unless we take this matter in hand in time.'"

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 21.—Charles E. Hughes left Milwaukee today for a trip through Indiana which contemplated 12 addresses, including his speech tonight at Richmond.

ROCK SPRINGS, Wyo., Sept. 21.—William J. Bryan, former Secretary of State, started today on his second day of his tour of Wyoming in support of President Wilson and the Democratic ticket, with the program calling for a number of speeches. Mr. Bryan declared the Republican party had been "unscrupulous in its methods concerning votes for women suffrage states." He warned the Democratic women to beware of "Republican trickery."

NINE BOYS TO PAYThey Are Prosecuted for Breaking up a Man's Home.

Another "bad boy" case was given an airing last night when Alderman Eugene O'Donovan presided at a hearing of nine West Side youngsters charged with destroying a man's furniture, house and other property. Charles Gallagher was the prosecutor. He claimed that the boys had torn down two sides of a shack in which he lives, and had carried away his furniture by wheelbarrow loads. All this occurred while he was away working as porter in a hotel here. The case was settled when parents of the offenders agreed to pay the costs and to pay a sum for the missing furniture.

Special to The Courier.

UNIONTOWN, Sept. 21.—Seeking to recover $6,458.22 alleged to be due for the construction of a road in Jefferson township, A. G. Rothey, of Elizabeth, appeared before Judge J. Q. Van Swearington as plaintiff in a suit against Jefferson township. Yesterday the jury was sworn and taken in automobiles to the road in Jefferson township. The juryman returned last night.

It is claimed by the contractor that he constructed 10,700 feet of macadam road from the foot of Stickslager's hill toward Brownsville to the Little Redstone. Presbyterian parsonage. Only three estimates were paid, he claims, and there is due for work on the road $6,458.22. In addition to this amount, Mr. Rothey asks interest from January 1, 1913, the road having been completed in 1912.

Judge E. H. Reppert in common pleas court No. 2 charged the jury this afternoon in the case of William H. Helme against Ewing B. Marshall. Both parties reside in Uniontown. The action of Mr. Helme is to recover $1,000, which he alleges he paid for stock in a concern known as the Weather-proof Drumhead Company, organized here in 1912. The concern, it is said, became insolvent, and Mr. Helme brought his action against Mr. Marshall, one of the promoters, alleging that the concern had been misrepresented to him.

Mr. Helme claimed that Mr. Marshall and Mr. Logan quarreled, and Mr. Morgan left, leaving the concern without the process for making the drumheads and the failure followed.

The trial occupied the entire day yesterday before Judge Reppert and went to the jury this forenoon.

Attorney George Patterson, counsel for Irvin E. Williams, plaintiff in a suit for $5,000 damages for personal injuries against Stewart township, today filed a motion for a new trial. Yesterday a jury returned a verdict for the defendant, exonerating the supervisors of Stewart township of all blame in connection with injuries received by Mr. Williams when he was thrown over a 20-foot embankment near Chillicothe on December 8, 1913.

According to the announcement of the train crew, passenger service on the Pittsburg, Westmoreland & Somerset railroad will be discontinued after Sunday.

The latter will now have to depend upon the Baltimore & Ohio service entirely. Farmers along the line will have to go back to their horses and wagons now.

SCHOOL SESSIONS*That Number Will Be Affected by Closing of

Year; List of Pupils Who Will Go to Other Schools Being Compiled.

When the Connellville public schools open on October 2, about 1,600 pupils will attend half-day sessions, owing to the closing of the Fourth Ward building and the razing of the Seventh street structure to make room for the new Crawford grade school. A complete reassignment of the pupils who ordinarily would have attended these buildings is being made and the names of all pupils with the school which they are to attend will be published in The Courier early next week.

"So far as possible we are assigning pupils to the school nearest their homes," said Superintendent of Schools S. P. Ashe.

When the Fourth Ward building was condemned last spring, its pupils were assigned to the South Side building. The regular South Side pupils attended schools in the morning and the Fourth Ward pupils and teachers occupied the rooms in the afternoon. In this way all students were enabled to put in full time.

A change was ordered in this arrangement for the 1916-1917 term, some of the Fourth Ward pupils being sent to the Third Ward building. The Seventh Ward children will attend school in the Greenwood building the same as last term.

The half-day arrangement for these schools will likely continue all term for it is not likely that either of the new schools will be ready for occupancy during the term.

John Rimbok, 22 years old, and giving his address as New York city, was sentenced to two days' street work. City Detective Rimbokell has been watching Rimbok for some time, and arrested him yesterday on the charge of being a suspicious person. When asked what he had been doing around town so long, Rimbokell said that he was looking for work, but could not find it.

Charles James, 56 years old, was arrested yesterday by Patrolman Shumaker on Fourth street, West Side. James was on an aggravated drunk and the police had to call a passing produce wagon into service to haul the offender to the lockup. He was committed for 24 hours.

HOW TO BE SLIM

If you are too fat and want to reduce your weight 15 or 20 pounds don't starve and weaken your system or think you must always be laughed at on account of your fat, but go to A. A. Clarke or any good druggist, and get a box of Oll of Korein capsules take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

Weigh yourself once a week and note what a pleasant and reliable method this is for removing superfluous fat from any part of the body.

It costs little, is absolutely harmless and a week's trial should convince anyone that it is unnecessary to be burdened with even a pound of unsightly fat.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Charming pink and white appointments prevailed at the wedding of Miss Mary L. Enos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Enos, and Clarence Shearer, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Danner of Kane, Pa., which took place last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride in Vine street. Rev. G. L. C. Richardson, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church officiated. Only the members of the two families witnessed the ceremony, which was followed by a jointly appointed luncheon, covers for thirty being laid. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Enos left for a wedding trip and on their return will be at home in Crawford avenue. The wedding gifts were many and beautiful. The bride is widely and favorably known. Mr. Danner is a well known young business man of Conneltsville, being a member of the firm of Shaw & Danner. Out of town guests were Mrs. Mary Sherrick of Pennsylvania, grandmother of the bride, and Miss Elizabeth Danner of Kane, Pa., house guests at the Enos home; Miss Lydie Sherrick of Pennsylvania; Miss Nellie Meason of Scottsdale, Pa.; C. E. Woods and daughter, Mary of Philadelphia.

A gorgeous display of millinery was witnessed yesterday afternoon at Mrs. Flora McFarland's millinery parlors in West Apple street, the attraction being the annual fall showing of fall and winter fashions in millinery. Stunning creations in all the season's newest ideas in millinery were attractively displayed. There is a wide diversity in shapes, both large and small models being very popular. Demotone smartness and chic was a Spanish model with a brim of black velvet and a crown of emerald velvet. A Gage model, small in size, of rich fur somewhat similar to mole, and a capotelet to match, attracted much attention as did a Directoire bonnet of black velvet, with a high standing bow of turquoise blue ribbon and silver lace caught in the center with a metallic and velvet pink rose. A Bonnet model of dull crepe with a double brim of extreme size, and trimmed with a smart bow of turquoise velvet, was very striking. A Cassel hat was made of blue chenille and adorned with pink roses artistically placed around the crown, was noteworthy of special mention.

Rev. G. L. C. Richardson, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of this city, officiated at the wedding of Miss Helen Collier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Collier of Latentown, and Roy Gallatin of Salem, O., which took place yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home of the bride in Gallatin avenue. Following the service a wedding dinner was served, covers being laid for only members and a few friends of the two families. Mr. and Mrs.

RETURN OF THIRD BATTALION A BIG EVENT FOR TENTH

Within several hundred yards of each other without being seen. The return trip was without event other than that there were some pretty tired boys last night.

A feature worthy of mention was the quick action of the signal corps with their wireless outfit. In just three minutes after their arrival with their equipment on pack mules they had it up and delivered a message from Colonel Coulter to General Clements, several miles distant. This is a very efficient department. They have a man for every move and while one set of men is erecting the tower pole another set is running out with the guy lines and by the time the pole is up, which is in about five-foot sections that overlap each other, they have the lines fastened. Another set unpacks the sending box and another set gets the armature set up and starts cranking the electricity so that by the time one department is ready all are ready. This is one department that surely is efficient in the present army.

The machine guns carried on the little Ford trucks are marvels for speed, too, and much good work was done by this department in the maneuvers. Conneltsville has one of the best gunners yet developed on the rifle range in the person of Percy Neff, formerly of Company D, but now with the Tenth Regiment machine gun company.

Dave Randolph did not get the appointment as commissary sergeant to fill the vacancy caused by the promotion of Montgomery Dilworth, but has been promised something better. Dave does not know yet what it is.

Major General Clements and staff accompanied the Tenth on the hike and established headquarters for the night not far from the Tenth. He has been profuse in his compliments to Colonel Coulter and Colonel Kruger.

The rainy season has passed and there has been no rain here for over two weeks now. The sun and storms are not so numerous either, but the days are hot and the nights cold.

HOW HE GOT THERE.

Story of a Workingman's Rise From the Ranks.

He was a mechanic, ambitious and wanted his own business. He noticed that every man who owned a business also owned a bank account. He opened one, himself, at the old reliable First National, and paid all his bills by check. In two years time he had a good balance and a chance to go into a repair business for himself. The bank mentioned advised and assisted him. He is now a prosperous business man, making five times as much as he made as a mechanic.—Adv.

KOBACKERS' GIVE ANNUAL SHOWING OF LATE STYLES

Fall Opening Draws Many Shoppers From All Over Region.

MUCH INTEREST IS SHOWN

Many Periods and Countries Contribute to the Widths of Dame Fashion This Year: Skirts Still Short, but are Expected to be Somewhat Lower Unusual style, beauty, and distinction marked the magnificent display of fall and winter merchandise on exhibition yesterday at the annual fall opening at Kobacker's store. The opening was a great success. The ideal weather and eagerness to witness dame fashion's correct styles for fall and winter brought out an unusually large crowd from Conneltsville and vicinity. All day long the various departments were filled with shoppers who had an opportunity to view one of the largest and most extensive lines of merchandise ever exhibited by the firm.

Many periods and countries have contributed toward this season's style and as the result there are many charming styles to choose from. After visiting the ladies ready-to-wear department on the second floor one is convinced that there has been a radical change in ladies' and misses' suits. A feature of the new suits are longer coats, and while the skirts are still worn short, it is predicted that as the winter advances they will drop an inch or more in length. All the newest and smartly tailored and semi-tailored suits were displayed in the newest shades including turquoise, myrtle green, rich dark brown, rich purple, navy and black, and elaborately trimmed with the season's most favored furs. The materials preferred are duvetine, velvet, flax serge, poplin and gabardine.
Some handsome models were developed of rich velvets. The charm of these suits are their distinctiveness.

Women's and Misses' serge dresses in smart styles and suitable for afternoon and street wear were shown in an endless variety of styles. The pleated dress, neatly fitted with large pockets, dresses, embroidered in sophisticated oriental colors. Bulgarian trimmed frocks were included in the assortment. Evening gowns of rare beauty, fashioned of crepe-de-chine, gloriette crepe, tulle combined with gold and silver lace, and chiffon were effectively displayed.

Women's and Misses' coats were shown in duvetine, bolivia cloth, brocade, velvet, Hudson seal and mixed materials. All the new models in tailored and fancy effects are either trimmed with fur or have the new deep color untrimmed or with a fur band trimming. Some are semi-fitted with a full flare while others are either loose or belted at the back.

Charming waists of gloriette crepe, crepe-de-chine, and net in white and flesh; new models in tailored or fancy effects, with the large square and scalloped collars, embroided in silk and artistic designs, and some trimmed with delicate lace, were exhibited. A new feature in waists is the combination of plain and plaid gloriette crepe.

Arranged in the center of the suit department is a large show case for displaying furs to a better advantage. The display included black fox, black lynx, mink, tan, fox, ermine, mink and other popular furs. Mink and half shaped muffs are extremely smart, while in scarfs there is a great variety of styles.

The gorgeous display of millinery was one of the principal attractions for the feminine shoppers of fashion.
Large hats, small hats, smartly tailored hats, and elegant dressy models were shown in a wonderful variety.
As the majority of the hats this season are smartly trimmed, the shape is really of great importance. Hats this year are chosen for their smartness of shape and color. Plain velvet, pauze velvet, hatters plush and velour are the popular fabrics, while the prevailing colors are black, burgundy, myrtle green, dark brown, fancy steel and jet ornaments, bead-ed ornaments, fancy feathers, fur, gold and silver lace, and flowers are extensively used in trimming some of the most charming models. The large sailor of hatter's plush and the velour hat, large and small, are extremely smart for tailored wear.

The display of knit goods included fancy sweaters in all the newest colors, scarfs, and caps to match.
The mitten underwear department was made attractive by a neat display of garments in crepe-de-chine and fine nainsook and artistically trimmed with elegant laces.

The corset department had on display every popular model, suited to the average figure. There was a great variety in children's wearing apparel to choose from. Coats, dresses and headwear were shown in many wonderful styles.

The drygoods department on the first floor was stocked with materials chosen for fall and winter, including velvet, duvetine, zibeline, fine serge, poplin, gabardine, and plaids and novelty effects. Silks in plain and fancy, crepe-de-chine, tulle, gloriette crepe, and chiffon, were shown in abundance, as were fall trimming of a great variety, which included gold and silver lace, fur bands, etc.

Attractively displayed in cases were new ideas in leather and silver tool, purses, large and small; novelties in jewelry, silk hosiery, kid gloves. In all the new shades, smart neckwear fashioned of organza, crepe-de-chine and broadcloth, and toilet articles.

The art and needle work department had on exhibition a large assortment of finished and unfinished models in embroidery work.

LITTLE GIRL HAD ECZEMA 4 YEARS

Started on Forehead, Spread All Over Limbs, Arms and Back.
Cried Night and Day.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"My little girl's eczema first started with a rash on her forehead which spread down her cheeks and then all over her limbs, arms and back. It began to burn and to run water and blood and her face swelled so you could not see her eyes. She cried night and day, and we had no sleep. She used to scratch all the time and her clothing stuck to the scales."
"It began when she was three months old and she had it about four years. Then we tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment. We used about eight boxes of Cuticura Ointment and six cakes of soap and now she is healed." (Signed)

"DIMPLES"—A live part Paramount production starring Mary Miller the popular screen star, in "A Virginia Romance," with Francis X. Bushman, and Beverly Dayne in the leading roles are today's feature attractions. Dimples lives with her father in an old attic room. He is a miser and hoards his gold in a bag hidden in the room.
Dimples does not know about the money, but Horton, the miser's only companion, does. Dimples wants a doll, but her father is too miserly to buy it. Horton loving the child, pawns his watch and gets a rag doll for Dimples. The child's father dies suddenly and Mrs. Riley an aunt of Dimples, is notified. The aunt who resides in a southern city takes the child to her home. "Dimples" is an original story written for Miss Miller, the charming and gifted young actress. Miss Miller is supported by an exceptionally strong cast. "A Virginia Romance" is a two act Metro production was taken in Virginia at Mr. Bushman's beautiful country home. Just before the football game between Virginia and Midside University, Ralph Fyler and Harry Daniels, are valued members of the team.
Ralph is in love with Georgia, Harry's sister, and has urged her to give him his answer. She tells him he shall have it after the game. Gambler Harry to throw the game, as they are putting up big money on the side of the opponents, and betting is heavy on the home team. Just as the game is about to begin they send a note to Harry on the field, offering him one thousand dollars to throw away the game. By mistake Ralph gets the note. The story is intensely interesting and the scenic effects are especially beautiful.

WHAT DYSPEPTICS SHOULD EAT

A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE.
"Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble are, nine times out of ten, due to acidity." Therefore stomach sufferers should, whenever possible, avoid eating food that is acid in its nature, or which by chemical action in the stomach develops acidity. Unfortunately, such a rule eliminates most foods which are pleasant to the taste as well as those which are rich in blood, flesh and nerve building properties. This is the reason why dyspeptics and stomach sufferers are usually so thin, emaciated and lacking in that vital energy which can only come from a well fed body.

For the benefit of those sufferers who have been obliged to exclude from their diet all starchy, sweet or fatty food, and are trying to keep up a miserable existence on gluten products, I would suggest that you should try a meal of any food or foods which you may like, in moderate amounts, taking immediately afterwards a teaspoonful of bisulphate magnesia in a little hot or cold water.
This will neutralize any acid which may be present, or which may be formed, and instead of the usual feeling of uneasiness and fullness, you will find that your food agrees with you perfectly.

I know of nothing better than plain bisulphate magnesia as a food corrective and antacid. It has no direct action on the stomach; but by neutralizing the acidity of the food contents and thus removing the source of the acid irritation which inflames the delicate stomach lining, it does more than could possibly be done by any drug or medicine.

As a physician, I believe in the use of medicine whenever necessary, but I must admit that I cannot see the sense of dosing an inflamed and irritated stomach with drugs instead of getting rid of the acid—the cause of all the trouble. Get a little bisulphate magnesia from your druggist, eat what you want at your next meal, take some of the bisulphate magnesia as directed above, and see if I'm not right!—Adv.

Cured His RUPTURE

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good.
Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation, if you write to me, Eugene M. Pullen, Carpenter, cut out this notice and show it to any others who are ruptured—you may save a life or at least the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation.

GUARDSMEN WILL GET TO VOTE IN CAMP AT EL PASO

Attorney General Brown Explains the Provisions of Law.

MUST PAY 10-CENT POLL TAX

Returns Will Not be Counted Until Third Friday After the Presidential Election: Personal Registration Not Necessary for the Soldiers.

Electors of Pennsylvania in actual military service are entitled to vote in all elections irrespective of where they may be stationed, according to the laws of the commonwealth.

In a recent letter to Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh, Attorney General Francis Shunk Brown gives his opinion in this matter, and prepares a resume showing in detail what soldiers are entitled to vote, and what qualifications are necessary. The act of August 26, 1861, entitled "An act to regulate elections by soldiers in actual military service," he says was passed "inasmuch to the constitutional amendment of 1861, which amendment was incorporated verbatim in the present constitution." The constitutionality of this statute, he explains, has never been questioned. It has been invoked three times, during the Civil, and the Spanish wars, and during the anthracite coal strike of 1902.

Voters who have been called into service by either the President or by the commonwealth, the act provides, and who are absent on such military duty at the time of elections, are entitled to cast their ballots. Soldiers at camp or armory who are waiting to be mustered out of the service or are awaiting further orders are also entitled to vote. Those home on furlough, however, must vote at their place of residence, not at their "rendezvous."

Some doubt has arisen as to whether the act requiring personal registration will prevent soldiers from holding elections in the field. Attorney General Brown, however, is of the opinion that a soldier does not have to comply with the personal registration regulations in order to vote in the field. These acts, he believes, do not apply to the persons in actual service.

In regard to taxes the soldier must have paid before he can vote. Mr. Brown gives his opinion: "He must have paid within two years a state or county tax, which shall have been paid at least one month before election. A poll tax of ten cents must also be received by the county treasurer. This can be paid by anyone who has the written order of the elector authorizing such payment, providing it is presented 30 days before the election at which the soldier wishes to vote."

The election at El Paso in November will be conducted by specially appointed commissioners. A poll will be opened in each company at some officer's quarters. These polls are to be open for at least 24 hours, and the proclamation will be made at the opening and one hour before closing. Separately poll books will be kept for the voters of each city and county. The books will be sent immediately after the election to the city or county for which they were kept, and where the electors would have voted if they had been in service. The soldier vote, it appears, will not be counted by the return judges until the third Friday after the presidential election. The governor will then compare the military returns with the county returns.

The national guardsmen have already been notified of their right to vote.

DON'T BE A SLAVE TO YOUR NERVES

Good Advice to Nervous People.

People who are excessively nervous, tired out and all run down, who get the jumps and jitters, who can't concentrate their minds on work, have fits of blues, trembling, nervous headaches and dyspepsia and that "don't give a hang" feeling so common to nervous folk may take it as a certain fact that their trouble is due to impoverished or devitalized nerve force. Their nerve cells are starving and when they give out entirely complete nervous prostration or breakdown is the result. A splendid treatment for weak nerves is found in the famous Margo Nerve Tablets composed of six of the best nerve vitalizing elements known to modern chemistry. These tablets go straight to the nerve cells and begin immediate action. Take a Margo Nerve tablet, wait ten minutes and watch yourself perk up. They feed your famished nerve cells, start healthy blood circulation and normal digestion. Then you brighten up, put on a smile, get some of the old time "pep" back in your system and feel as happy as a clam at high tide. Margo Nerve Tablets are absolutely harmless, contain no dangerous habit forming drugs, are easy to take, inexpensive and Laughey Drug Co., and other leading druggists sell them on a positive guarantee of successful results or money back.—Adv.

Tonight, after brushing your teeth, examine them closely. You will likely find an accumulation of tartar on the enamel and bits of food deposit hiding in the crevices.

Decay, as well as the dangerous gum disease called Pyorrhea, usually develops only in the mouth where germ-laden tartar is present. YOUTH HELD UNDER BAIL AS RESULT OF FUSS AFTER PARTY Shooting of Timothy Keenan at North Scottdale is Probed.

PRISONER DENIES THE CHARGES

Prosecution is Outgrowth of a Gathering Which Was Disturbed by Uninvited Guests: Standard. Lad Cashes an Artery: Other Notes.

Special to The Courier.

MOUNT PLEASANT, Sept. 21.—Milton Carr was held under bail for court yesterday after waiting a hearing before Justice of the Peace L. S. Rhodes on four charges, that of felonious shooting, assault and battery, shooting with intent to kill and carrying concealed weapons. This was the result of an attack on several horses and as many girls, following a party at the home of the Walls in North Scottdale on September 7. A crowd who were not invited sat across the street and used profane language, so that the games being played had to be moved to the rear of the house. At the close of the party, when the guests were going down the road, the unruly guests attacked them. Timothy Keenan, it is alleged, jumped on the shoulders of Milton Carr and at this time several shots were fired, which Keenan got in the right thigh. He walked to Dr. J. T. Gilbert and later was brought to the Memorial Hospital at Mount Pleasant.

It is claimed that two of the boys in the party fired shots, but Carr states positively that he never owned a gun. The warrant was brought to Mount Pleasant by Constable Berry of Scottdale who turned it over to J. C. Thompson, who served it yesterday.

Candy Carmine, aged 26 years and married, who received a very badly sprained ankle at the Standard mines of the H. C. Frick Coke Company, was admitted to the Memorial Hospital yesterday.

Susan Harcom, 21 years old, is dead at her Bridgeport street home. She will be buried in the Dunkard cemetery this afternoon.

Harry Waters, aged 16 years, of Standard, fell and severed the vein on the right wrist. The arm struck a sharp stone when he fell.
